

Smith Charged With Entering Bi-Party Deal

Accused of Promising Anti-Primary Bill in Exchange for His Traction Measure

Independents Believe It

Allegations Made by Citizens Union Denied by Governor and Speaker Sweet

ALBANY, March 13.—Formal charges that Governor Smith had entered into a bi-partisan deal with Thaddeus C. Sweet, Speaker of the Assembly, and Senator J. Henry Walters, president pro tem of the Senate, were made by the Citizens Union to-day.

The charges, which were denied by the Governor and Speaker Sweet—Senator Walters was not in town—did not come as a surprise. Within the last three days legislators of an independent turn of mind have been charging that a deal was on. One of the most prominent men in either House said to-day:

"The secret conferences between the Governor and Walters and Sweet are creating a situation which may result in an open revolt of the liberal Republicans in the Senate. There is little hope in the Assembly, for it is conducted in steam-roller fashion. Sweet and Walters are using their Republican followers as pawns in their private conferences with the Governor."

Not True, Says Governor

The charges were contained in a statement issued by Walter T. Arndt, secretary of the Citizens Union. When The Tribune correspondent showed the statement to Governor Smith he said:

"There is not a word of truth in it. In view of the fact that I know Mr. Arndt and know him to be a man of ability, I feel that his statement was deliberate, cold blooded and purely political to the last degree, and was evidently issued to justify his position with the Citizens Union."

Arndt charged that the basis of the deal was an agreement on the part of the Republican leaders to give the Governor his bill remaining the New York City Public Service Commission on condition that he would sign the bill restoring the convention system of nominating state tickets and candidates for the Supreme Court.

The Governor was asked if he would comment on the charges, but he had agreed to sign the convention bill.

"I don't care to discuss it, because it is my belief that no such bill can be passed by the Legislature. Therefore, I can't see why I should have anything to say about it," he replied.

Other Questions Fail

Other questions failed to get the Governor to commit himself on the convention bill.

Arndt in his statement issued on behalf of the Citizens Union, said in part:

"It has been many a long day since the state has seen such a bald deal as this one. It is reported on the authority of the Governor yesterday, 'We have had bi-partisan deals before connected in the quiet corners of the legislative halls. Here is one arranged in the Executive Chamber and promulgated by the Chief Executive. The Republican leaders promise to 'give him' his Public Service legislation."

"Plainly speaking, that legislation is a ripper legislation. The ripper character consists in getting rid by legislation of the present office holders in order that new men may be appointed to their places. The chief reason is not that there is really anything wrong with the present law, but merely that the present water-logged and bankrupt traction interests, a crowd of hungry Tammany contractors, and the Hyman administration cannot get along with the existing commission and get away with things as easily as they would like."

Has Troubles Enough

"When the Republican leaders went to the Governor in regard to the restoration of the state convention he tried to persuade them to put it off for another year. He had enough troubles, he said. But the Republican leaders were insistent. They needed the state convention resurrected right away. How else could they save Jim Wadsworth from the wrath of the women suffragists and the Prohibitionists in their party?"

"Here was the basis for a deal. Each party wanted something that the other could give and wanted it badly. It was only a question of time and a little nerve."

Speaker Sweet characterized the Arndt statement as a malicious attempt to mislead the public. He said there was not "a single thought in it based on actual facts."

Boy's Attempted Suicide Starts Opium Probe Here

Dr. Copeland Announced His Decision to Investigate Chinatown Traffic

Health Commissioner Copeland announced last night he would begin at once an investigation of what is declared might be a well-established practice of attracting wealthy young men to drug dens in the Chinese quarter.

The circumstances surrounding the attempted suicide of a seventeen-year-old boy, son of wealthy California parents, who was found dangerously ill from veronal poisoning in his room at the Hotel McAlpin yesterday morning, will be the specific lead from which Mr. Copeland will work.

The boy, who gave his name as A. Roland Davidson and said his father's address was 608 South Orange Grove Avenue, Pasadena, Cal., left a letter in which he referred to "chinks" who "wouldn't be minute if you owed them anything for help."

'Police Suspect Me of Murder,' Says Wilkins sault upon himself and the murder of his wife.

The police have been searching for the origin of the piece of paper which was wrapped around the handle of the hammer with which Mrs. Wilkins was killed. They announced last night that they had found the rest of the sheet from which it had been torn.

Results of the autopsy upon the exhumed body of Mrs. Wilkins, which have not been made public, were also gone over. Dr. Wilkins throughout the conference was accompanied by his attorney, Lewis G. Friess.

At the conclusion of the conference, the physician and his attorney returned to the city.

Detectives of the William J. Burns and R. C. Schindler agencies, who have been cooperating with the county authorities, have asked Dr. Wilkins' aid in clearing up certain points concerning the death of his wife.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilkins' home in Oliver Street, Long Branch, is not more than seven minutes' walk from the railway station, where they arrived from New York on the night of February 27 at 9:00. The physician has told of seeing a light in his home, after which he asked Mrs. Wilkins to wait outside while he went into investigate.

He was struck on the head as he entered and was stunned. A battered derby hat bears witness to the blow. There is no sign of injury upon the physician's scalp, although he is bald. He fell on the hallway and the robbers searched him, taking his wallet and a scarf pin. A picture stands on an easel, close to where Dr. Wilkins dropped. It was not overturned.

Robber Went to Stifle Screams

The physician has told how one of the robbers rushed out to stifle Mrs. Wilkins' screams and returned, saying: "It's a messy job; we better get out."

He has also related that he found his wife's body lying in the roadway leading to the garage. She had seventeen wounds on her head from the hammer that had crushed her skull. Her hands were covered with blood. Dr. Wilkins says, and as he bent over her she waved them, spattering his collar and the brim of his hat.

The left side of Dr. Wilkins' collar was torn and his tie was also ripped. Beside the wounds on the head received by Mrs. Wilkins, her left hand was badly bruised.

Residents of Long Beach have told detectives that Mrs. Wilkins had not been in good health for some time. She had complained, they say, of "a funny dizzy feeling."

Officials investigating the case say that it is on the verge of solution and that arrests may be expected within the next twenty-four hours.

Particulars Filed by Woman in Riehle Suit

Alleges She Rendered "Confidential Services" to Women for Politician

Miss Beatrice De Acosta filed in the Supreme Court yesterday a bill of particulars demanded by John M. Riehle, president of the National Democratic Club and insurance broker, in a suit for $50,000 which Miss De Acosta is bringing against him.

Miss De Acosta alleged in her suit that the defendant agreed to pay her a salary of $18 a week for life for services rendered by her. The plaintiff yesterday set forth the alleged character of these services as directed. She said that from November, 1914, to February, 1915, she rendered confidential services for one Olga Treskow, with whom, Miss De Acosta alleged, Theodore M. Riehle, son of the politician, was involved, and that in November and December, 1915, she rendered similar services with one Alma Cameron in behalf of Mr. Riehle. In these cases, said Miss De Acosta in her bill of particulars, she relieved father and son from "humiliation, liability and disgrace."

Mr. Riehle yesterday obtained from Justice Cochran an order directing Miss De Acosta to go into greater detail regarding the services she rendered.

U. S. Troops in Germany Can Visit Greece on Leave

COBLENZ, Feb. 16.—The leave of absence area for the American troops of occupation was recently extended to include Greece. Under the present plan officers and men of the Third Army, in en route to England, may visit Paris, Belgium, England, Italy or Greece, leaves being for two weeks, except in exceptional cases.

Weather Report

WASHINGTON, March 13.—An extensive area of high barometer had its crest immediately south of Hudson Bay and extended districts east of the line of the Mississippi River and the northern central states. An area of low barometer covers the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions and the Pacific states with the lowest barometer over Oregon and Nevada. This pressure distribution has been attended by cloudiness that covers all parts of the country except the north border from Lake Superior eastward and the south border from the Rocky Mountain region. There have been general rains west of the Rocky Mountains and local snows in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys.

The temperature has fallen decidedly in the northern states from the Missouri Valley outward to New England and over the western plateau. Mild weather continues throughout the southern half of the country east of the Rocky Mountains.

The outlook is for cloudy and unsettled weather over the states east of the Mississippi River during the next forty-eight hours, with snow Friday and Saturday in the region of the Great Lakes, snow or rain Saturday in New England and over New York and probably rain by Friday night and Saturday in the middle Atlantic states, the Ohio valley, Tennessee and the east Gulf states.

temperatures will fall Friday in Southern New England, the mid Atlantic states and the Ohio Valley. It will rise Saturday in the region of the Great Lakes. Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast and at north of Sandy Hook and on the California coast.

Special Vicinity Forecasts.—Northern New England, fair, continued cold Friday; Saturday cloudy with rising temperature, probably snow.

Southern New England, cloudy and colder Friday; Saturday threatening, with probably snow.

Eastern New York, cloudy Friday, probably followed by rain on the coast and rain or snow in the interior Friday night and Saturday; rising temperature Saturday.

Eastern Pennsylvania, cloudy and colder Friday; probably followed by rain in south and rain or snow in north Friday night and Saturday.

New Jersey, cloudy and colder Friday; probably followed by rain by Friday night and Saturday; warmer Saturday.
